Robbery Cases Aired In Court

Two Negroes Held for the Grand Jury for Robbing
C. C. Cleveland—Evidence
Very Conflicting.

The robbery of C. C. Cleveland, which took place at a house on Newton street during the early hours of Sunday morning, and for which Ernest Thomas, James Spraggins and Ethel Bell, colored, were arrested, was thoroughly aired in the Police court this morning. The cases against Thomas and the negroes were sent to the grand jury and Spraggins was released under bond as a material witness. Thomas was fined $50 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail for selling stolen goods. It was charged that he sold Cleveland liquor. Quite a number of witnesses were put under recognized bonds for their appearance before the grand jury. The testimony this morning was very conflicting and there were many phases of the case which were unresolved.

Cleveland was robbed of about $20 in cash, an Elgin watch and an overcoat, he charges, while he was at the home of Willie Reed in an intoxicated condition. He later identified Thomas and the negroes as having grabbed him and emptied through his pockets and then "kicked" him from the house. Cleveland says he was not too drunk to remember clearly what took place, but that he checked on them so much that he could do nothing.

After leaving the house he immediately sought an officer. When Patrolman S. M. Heflinger saw him, he arrested the man for being drunk and lodged him in jail. Cleveland, at the time tried to tell Heflinger of being robbed, but the officer paid little attention to him because he was drunk.

It was a complicated case as revealed in court. The watch seems to have passed through the hands of several negroes. It appeared that Thomas pawned the watch to Ezekiel Slade

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Oct. 19.—A definite proposal for the establishment of a British empire air service, in which the British and Indian governments are prepared to co-operate, will be brought before the federal parliament, Premier Hughes has announced. ### Europe Still Carries Burden Of Armament

(By The Associated Press.)
ROME, Oct. 18.—The armies of the vanquished in the world war have been reduced to 100,000 men for Germany, and 30,000 each for Austria-Hungary and Bulgaria, according to the newspaper La Epoca, which has collected statistics on the military strength of various countries in Europe from official sources.

The paper calls attention to the immense number of soldiers who are being trained to arms in southern and eastern Europe. In the Balkans, where the spark that brought about the conflagration was kindled, the record is particularly high. It declares Greece, with a population of 5,500,000 has an army of 300,000 men. Yugoslavia, bellicose by nature and tradition and surrounded by neighbors who do not love her, has an army of 500,000 men, a heavy burden on her scanty finances. Rumania and Czechoslovakia, haunted by the fear of Bolshevism and surrounded by enemies and uncertain frontiers, keep each an army of 200,000 men, while Poland, new to liberty and independence and hating bitterly her former masters, Germany, Russia and Austria, paperizes herself to keep on a war footing 300,000 soldiers.

These nations have to face the menace of Bolshevism. Russia, La Epoca continues, with her 1,500,000 German trained fighters, France comes next to Russia with an army of almost 900,000 men, while England and Italy, which have no frontiers, are about equal in numbers, have respectively armies of 340,000 and 220,000 men. These large bodies of soldiers, withdrawn from the industrial life of their countries, are a constant danger to the peace of Europe and an almost intolerable burden for the impoverished nations that have to support them.

Wilhelmina Is Greeted By Sweden

(By The Associated Press.)
STOCKHOLM, Oct. 18.—Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, together with her Prince Consort and several members of her court has left for home after a visit of state to King Gustaf V and Queen Victoria of Sweden, the occasion being especially memorable as the Netherlands in Stockholm.

Queen Wilhelmina was welcomed at the railway station by the entire Swedish Royal Family, day and night, and by the Crown Prince, Princes Wilhelm and Bernadotte, and Prince Eugene, the King's brother. Others present at the arrival were Premier Hjalmar Branting and the ranking officers of the army and navy. Swedish populace lined the streets between the station and the Royal Castle, and ignored the drenching rain while they cheered their necks to get a glimpse of the royal carriages. Not far from the station, the crowds, and those who were lucky enough to witness the first meeting of the Dutch and Swedish rulers were impressed with the cordiality shown in the greetings.

In the formal address, announced in French by Queen Wilhelmina and King Gustaf at the Royal Castle, the historical aspects of the occasion and the solidarity of the two nations in their common ideals were stressed. The visit lasted the entire day and included state dinners and receptions, included musical entertainments and visits to the National Museum, and to Riddarholm Church, which contains the remains of Gustavus Adolphus and Charles XII.

Girl Confesses to Murder Charge

Twenty-Year-Old Says Ailing
Father-in-Law, 54,
Asked Her to Put Him
Out of Way and She Did.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
WHITE CLOUD, Mich., Oct. 19.—The State was believed today to be near the close of its case against Mrs. Maudie Hodell, 20 years old, who is on trial for the alleged murder of her 54-year-old father-in-law, David Hodell. The high point in the prosecution, it was intimated, was reached yesterday with the introduction of a statement which State police officers furnished as a voluntary confession of the young woman. The alleged confession relates that Hodell was sick and miserable and requested his daughter-in-law to "put him out of the way."

"And so I did it," Mrs. Hodell was quoted as saying, "because I thought it was better for him and better for us if he were 'over there.'"

The statement further said that poison was placed in Hodell's coffee.

3-4 Million Pounds Of Tobacco Here

Sales Will Block Today—
Piedmont and Acres
Have Each Six Hour
Sale—Block Narrowly Averted Yesterday.

The assurance that the auction warehouse sales would block this afternoon was given this morning when a survey was made of the unusually heavy offerings on hand. Today's sale exceeds that of yesterday and is the biggest of the season. It is estimated that fully 700,000 pounds of leaf is on the floor. There will be two continued sales tomorrow.

First sales today were at Banner, Acres, Piedmont and Union with the second at Central Planters and Holmuds. Both Acres and Piedmont warehouses, the largest in the city were almost filled with tobacco, a narrow space on the floor in each warehouse being cluttered with motor trucks and wagons. Both warehouses began sales at nine o'clock which were expected to last fully six hours. Banner and Union had the smallest of the first sales.

Yesterday a block was narrowly averted and it was only one single cigarette that invaded Acres warehouse that the leaf was disposed of before dark.

A good deal of common tobacco is in evidence and warehousemen complained yesterday of the high prices in which tobacco was sold out, this having the effect of causing prices on many of the grades.

The supervisor of sales has decided in future to make the weekly return on sales for the Danville market from Friday to Thursday instead of from Friday to each week. This has been decided in view of the heavy receipts and the difficulty in getting up the figures at the end of the week.

Price Of Gas Cut One Cent

The cut of one cent affects all one cent this morning, the local representatives of the oil companies being notified by wire last night of the cut. This brings gas generally to 26 cents and it is the third cut made of recent weeks.

The cut of one cent affects all amounts delivered. It was said this morning that this is the lowest price gasoline has reached in eighteen months and it was further pointed out in responsible quarters that a further decline might be announced within a few weeks. One factor in the price reduction is said to be the curtailment of export shipments of gas and the general drop in demand which comes with the advent of cold weather when automobiling is not indulged in to the extent that it is during the summer months.

Plan Schooling Against Losses Due To Fires

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Widespread instruction in fire prevention methods among the general public is the purpose of the convening here today of the annual three-day meeting of the Railway Fire Prevention association.

In the year 1921, fire in the United States caused a property loss of $485,000,000, killed nearly 15,000 persons and injured more than 16,000 others. Of these casualties, 53 per cent were suffered by mothers, children and invalids.

The figures are published by the association to show the need of increased campaigns against carelessness where fire is possible. Nearly 20 per cent of these losses of life and property are due to carelessness and lack of proper education as to existing hazards, according to the association.

The meeting is the culmination of Fire Prevention Week recently designated by President Harding. The campaign of the association this year will be actively supported by various insurance activities and by the United States Chamber of Commerce, and many local chambers. Railroad officers and employees have given active co-operation in the observance of Fire Prevention Week.

Plan Pan-Pacific Commerce School

(By International News Service)
HONOLULU, Oct. 18.—A Pan-Pacific School of Commerce, backed by some of the greatest universities in the world and having its principal establishment at Honolulu, is now projected and scheduled to be taken up for consideration during sessions of the Pan-Pacific Commercial Conference this month.

Announcement to this effect has been made by Alexander Hume Ford, of Honolulu, director of the Pan-Pacific Union, with headquarters at this city, following conferences with representatives of commercial colleges throughout the United States. The plan is to establish at Honolulu, as the central point of the Pacific, an international school of commerce which will serve as a sort of clearing house for commercial education in the Pacific area, and by means of which it is hoped to effect a standardization of commercial practices in all Pacific countries. It is understood that the University of New York is vitally interested in the proposed school and may sponsor it if the plans now being formulated are accepted by the delegates to the commercial conference.

The Pan-Pacific Commercial Conference has been called to convene at Honolulu on October 25, 1922, and formal invitations have been sent through the office of the Secretary of State to all Pacific countries to participate.

Two More Silent Envoys to League

Harding Will Send "Unofficial Representatives" to Attend Commissions.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—In pursuance of its policy of non-detached affiliation with the affairs of the League of Nations, the Harding Administration proposes to designate two more of what are termed unofficial representatives to the American delegation to the League of Nations.

This was made known today at the White House, accompanied by reiterated statement of the Administration's attitude that it desires to watch, even if it does not pay, the forthcoming commissions to which American members are invited to take up the subjects of opium traffic and white slavery.

Similarly it was announced the question of an observer on a labor committee concerned with the investigation of anthrax also is under consideration. No selections have been made, it was said, but in any case the invitations will not be accepted with any idea of having the American delegate participate beyond the point of being a silent witness.

It is the custom of President Harding, when the embarrassing subject of this country's policy in foreign affairs comes up, to emphasize the point that the executive is under the inhibition of Congressional disapproval and, therefore, could not support delegates with plenary powers, even if he so desired.

This point was brought out again today in connection with the latest invitations of the League to have this country share in the consideration of settlement of international questions.

That the number and importance of the League's activities with the consequent invitations for this country's participation, are a source of no little annoyance to the Administration is apparent from the manner in which the subject is officially treated. Each time it is brought up, it is disposed of as hastily and in the fewest possible words on each occasion.

Diversified Crop Advocated in Talk

(By The Associated Press.) CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 18.—More diversified farming in order that each section of the nation could produce its entire food supply and prevent dependence upon railroads when transportation facilities are interrupted by strikes and other causes, was urged by W. E. Ward, food inspector of Brooklyn, Mass., in an address here today before the food and drug section of the American Public Health Association.

Mr. Ward also urged federal supervision over interstate shipments of milk and other dairy products and advised the use of refrigerators cars for the transportation of milk, cream and supplies for those cities which receive their produce from distant sources and suggested trying out cooperative purchasing organizations of consumers.

The speaker declared that education of the public through the public schools and health officials in matters of food and hygiene would have a great public health value.

Prohibition has more than doubled the work of inspections of soda fountains and soft drink manufacturing plants, declared James Kilgus, chief of the unit of food inspection of the Chicago department of health.

"Six years ago there were 63 manufacturers of soft drinks in Chicago. Today there are 138. The rapid expansion of the business has resulted in a great deal of carelessness," Mr. Kilgus said.

"In April, 1932, Dr. R. D. Bunderson, commissioner of health, ordered a drive on all soft drink establishments which resulted in a general cleanup, white washing, scrubbing, cleaning and painting."

"Several licenses were revoked because the manufacturers persisted in using bottles and siphons of other dealers, thus making it impossible to check the responsibility for unsanitary conditions."

40-YEAR-OLD BOXER IS TRAINING IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Oct. 19.—Only one boxing throne remains unoccupied in Germany's pugilistic world. The ownerless title is that of the champion, and a holder is expected to develop for it during the coming winter.

"Phenomenon" Volkmer, a boxer who has passed his fortieth year, is in training to contest the German weight title. At the same time that he meets the champion Grass, it is planned to have the bill include two other titleholders, Naujocks and Breitenstraeter.

Prince's Pearls Are Subject Of New Gossip

(By The Associated Press.) LONDON, Oct. 19.—The fact that the Prince of Wales is collecting pearls for a necklace has furnished another topic of absorbing interest for discussion over the tea cups, and there are flutters in the hearts of those interested in the royal matrimonial plans.

It will be remembered that Lord Lascelles did exactly the same thing before the announcement of his engagement to Princess Mary. But even with that precedent, it is not safe to assume that any exciting news will follow the revelation of the Prince's interest in such matters.

Collecting among the English nobility is a time honored occupation. Many priceless collections of pearls have been owned by Englishmen in the past, but very few of them have been intact at the present time.

The Duke of Devonshire will own the famous Devonshire pearls which were collected fifty years ago at a cost said to have been $50,000 pounds.

The Duke of Gunningham, during the reign of Charles I, was able to collect the most famous pearls then known in England and at the time the Commonwealth they were taken to Paris and sold to various dealers there.

Matching pearls in the present day is a hard task and, of course, requires a very long and well lighted purse. Even when money is no object it requires much time and infinite patience. All the markets of the world have to be searched, and each pearl must be considered in relation to all the others in order to form a perfect necklace.

Officials Tell How U. S. Planned to Bomb Berlin

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Officials of the War Department today confirmed the announcement of Lester Barlow and Glenn L. Martin, made at Cleveland last night, that plans had been made to bomb Berlin from the air and would have been executed had the World War been prolonged another year.

The device was pointed out, however, that the device described by Mr. Barlow for long distance air attack upon the German capital was only one of several under active consideration.

This device was first discussed in 1917. It contemplated the transportation of a large quantity of high explosive in a big bombing plane, which would carry a fast scouting plane on its wing. The pilot, after arriving in the vicinity of Berlin, would cut loose the scout plane and direct the movement of the bomber by radio.

The bomber would be destroyed by the cargo of TNT as it crashed to the ground in the German capital.

The criticism of this device was that it entailed a large financial outlay and asked the life of the pilot, since German planes necessarily would be encountered in numbers after the first attack.

Another plan contemplated loading smaller planes with explosives and sending them against Berlin and other objectives in Germany under radio control.

ONLY COLLECTED WHEN GAME WAS BROKEN-UP

Peyton R. Hatcher whose name was recently mentioned in connection with the unusual increase in the taking of rain insurance policies has denied that he collected money on a policy when he had the day it rained in South Danville and not in Danville during the course of a baseball game.

The agent's recollection was that the policy had been paid but Mr. Hatcher declares that this was not the case and that during the baseball season he collected insurance only on such games as the game was actually broken up from one side or the other almost to the baseball park and still none fell there and Mr. Hatcher was unable to collect under the terms of the policy.

STOCK MARKET REPORT

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Sale of oil shares was the feature of the irregular opening of stock market. Mexican Petroleum declined 4.50 points in the first hour and an American Petroleum stock which reports it is to be transferred for Mexican Petroleum under a new plan of exchange was some higher than the "oil" stock for the first time. The advance in trade was led by Northern Pacific and Western Union, each up a point. Central and River stock improved.

T. A. Fox left today for Norfolk to attend the meeting of the State Board of Embalmers, of which Mr. Fox is president. Mrs. Fox accompanied him.

City Auditor Richard F. Moss, who yesterday underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils was reported today as improving.

Polar Party Back Home

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The explorers who accompanied the late Sir Ernest Shackleton to the Antarctic on his last voyage have recently returned to England in the west, and they readily confess their delight at being home again. They have been absent one year, and hardship and disappointment have been their portion.

Since the death of Shackleton in the Antarctic last January, the explorers have been led by Captain Frank Wild. He viewed the important scientific results have been secured, and says they soon will be officially recorded.

In sixty-nine eighteen, south, the party achieved a record for longitude. They believed they were then near land, judging from appearances. As the water was shallow rapidly, the fault of the ship was that she was not powerful enough to combat the ice. She was well equipped and had plenty of food, so that she could have cruised for some time had she had the necessary power.

J. Q. Rowett, who financed the expedition, was the first to greet the survivors of the Quest on their return, and he congratulated the men on their efforts and the overcoming of almost insurmountable difficulties after the death of Sir Ernest.

The situation was given color by the continuing of the feverish activity in the past three days, on the part of the scientists and others on the case.

New Evidence in Hall-Mills Murder Case

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 19.—New evidence in the Hall-Mills murder case is in the hands of the authorities. It is believed today by a man close to the confidence of county prosecutors Bowman of Somerset and Stricker of Middlesex.

Fathers and Sons Face Jury Today

MIDDLEBURG, Va., Oct. 18.—With the empanelling of a jury today, all is in readiness for the opening tomorrow of the trial of four men accused in the death of Irving Hatcher, a commission merchant, who was shot as he stepped from his store here on April 15.

Two fathers and their sons are indicted on a charge of murder. One of the sons, Louis Furr, the first to be brought to trial, will face the jury at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The others who will stand trial are Charles Furr, father of Louis, Milton Furr and his father, Alexander Furr. At the time of the shooting it was revealed that a feud existed between the Furr and occasional members of the family, the Lascells.

Although Milton Furr surrendered and stated that he had fired the shot, the other members of the family were arrested and later indicted by the grand jury.

Two "Widows" Claim Big Legacy of Liquor

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Whisky valued at more than $50,000 and securities worth $60,000 are included in the estate of the late Richard Tracey, hotel owner, for which two women, each claiming to be his widow, are fighting in the Probate Court.

Mrs. Margaret Tracey, of Cincinnati, said she was married to Tracey in 1895 and he deserted her here in 1909. She contests appointment of Mrs. Anna Tracey, with whom the hotel was kept, as executrix of his will.

Tracey, according to the Cincinnati claimant, had no daughter named Hazel, their two children being killed, now dead, and Loretta, now married to a man named Necker.

Legion Men Ask Sawyer's Removal

President's Physician Is Again Target for Attack on Convention Floor.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 19.—A resolution demanding the removal of Brig-Gen. Charles E. Sawyer for his report of Rice Means, of Colorado, of the National Rehabilitation committee which accepted the "pledge of co-operation" given by General Sawyer.

Declaring that "an armistice has been signed" and that "it's time to stop fighting" Adolphus Granow, of California, spoke against Barron's resolution. A demand from the floor that the statement be made as to whether Gen. Sawyer had signed an agreement in writing was announced by Col. A. A. Sprague, of Chicago, chairman of the rehabilitation committee, who said the committee had taken Sawyer "at his word."

Colonel Sprague said he believed General Sawyer had been mistakenly criticized. He asked a vote against Barron's resolution.

"It will not be a blow at Sawyer," he said. "You can't disclose Sawyer. I will only be a blow at your rehabilitation committee."

Two Steamships With Supplies For Near East

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Two steamships, as the result of the action taken today, will leave soon from American ports, filled with food and clothing for refugees in the Near East.

One of the vessels, a shipping board steamer, will proceed by direction of President Harding, in response to a request from the Near East Relief Association, to furnish the ship, declared there was good reason for further government assistance in Near East relief activities. The other vessel, the steamship Stuyvesant, will leave on October 24, with 1,000 tons of food and wearing apparel, according to an announcement by the American Red Cross.

Chairman Lasker, responding to the President's request, notified Mr. James I. Barton, head of the Near East Relief, that the "Coeur d'Alene," now at New York, was available and that if the cargo was not ready another vessel would be furnished at the convenience of the relief agency. The "Coeur d'Alene" is capable of carrying 1,450 tons.

In directing the assignment of a shipping board vessel, the President wrote to Mr. Lasker as follows:

"You are familiar with the great relief work in the Near East which has been undertaken by the American Red Cross and the Near East Relief organizations. This great work is in response to the promptings of the American heart to perform a great service in the hour of extreme emergency. There is not only an impressive call on the generosity of the American purse and the sacrifice of time on the part of the American citizens, but I think there is good reason for us to do everything possible in a governmental way to further this most appealing enterprise."

"It has occurred to me that in the transport of food and clothing it might be possible for the United States Shipping Board to place a cargo vessel at the hands of the co-ordinated agencies to carry a relief cargo to the distributing center at Constantinople. Such action would be in accord with the congressional application for the relief and care of the American refugees and would make a becoming governmental contribution to the generous work undertaken by these co-ordinated agencies which are giving expression to American thoughtfulness and sympathy."

One hundred and sixty passengers were taken from the "Coeur d'Alene" Concord today by the freighter Mohican while a fire raged in the cargo hold of the passenger ship. The fire broke out after men of the Mollusk had left the ship to fight the fire. The transfer of passengers was undertaken with the vessel twelve miles from shore and the wind blowing a gale from the N. W. No one was injured. The cargo of the Concord, silk, woolen and general merchandise was damaged.

CHINESE YOUTH FIRES HOME TO AID GRANDMA

(International News Service)
 PEKING, Oct. 18.—"Help grandmother get along in hell," thought little Chun Li, aged six, and burned the house down in his zeal. Thus the Buddhist festival of the dead ended.
 When his father and mother came home late after their worship they found that their son had even been more pious—that he was solemnly watching the smoldering ruins of their home while a curious crowd looked on in sympathy.

It was the day when people pray for the dead, especially for those dead whose life on this earth was seared with evil deeds and who are forced to atone in the Buddhist hell. The latter refers particularly to women. The rites are celebrated by burning special prayer papers and packages of rice and also by setting out imitation lotus flowers on floats and letting them drift down
 the river in flames.

Chun Li's grandmother had died
 the year before. He had loved her dearly, for she had always brought him little candied apricots to eat and once she had given him money to buy a kite. But he had heard people say that she had been a wicked woman and that she would now pay for it in hell. And therefore he was particularly anxious to do all he could for her on the day of offerings for those in hell, and he was bitterly disappointed when his mother and father would not let him come with them to the river, where they were going to light
 some paper lotus flowers.

With tears in his eyes he saw
 other people also going to the canal and next door in the street he saw bags of rice being burned. Thereupon he had an inspiration. He hunted about in the kitchen and found some rice. He also discovered some garlic on a shelf and he scattered it in the rice, for he knew his grandmother had loved to eat her rice that way. Then he wrapped it carefully in a bit of paper and set fire to the bundle. The straw matting of the floor also caught fire and soon the house was in flames.

Mr. and Mrs. Chun Li took their loss philosophically. They accepted it as a heavenly intervention. Thus must the dead be feasted.

The origin of the ceremony is said to extend back to Mu Lien, one of Buddha's disciples. Mu Lien's mother was a wicked woman and upon her death went the way of all evil doers. Wishing to alleviate her sufferings he brought food to her grave,
 but this immediately turned to fire
 and, much frightened, he fled to Buddha for advice.

But Buddha said: "She has been a wicked woman and what you do is of no avail. Still if you wish to soften some of her sufferings burn offerings to her on the fifteenth day of the seventh moon."

Thus on the anniversary of this day all those who may have had wicked parents burn offerings to them so that they may be to some extent relieved of the evils who are torturing them.

That night Peking is girdled by a serpent of fire as the thousands of burning lotus flowers drift down the canals.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 18.—A man charged with wife beating had both eyes blackened by the magistrate, who ended the incident by imposing a $10 fine.

The magistrate, Alderman Edward Burke, of Pittston, had heard only part of the wife's testimony when he shouted "I am going to see how he likes it" and jumping over his desk, ordered Asakas, the defendant, to stand up. As Asakas did the magistrate hit him a sharp blow over the left eye. The defendant fell but was ordered up again and received another punch over the other eye which once more sent him to the floor. Asakas promised never to strike his wife again.

'Woman's Day,' Says Girl Sleuth, Charging Men Bungled Hall Case

MISS FLORENCE NORTH

HIGH SPOTS
 The long drawn out Hall-Mills murder mystery has had these
 high spots:

Rev. J. W. Hall and Mrs.
 Eleanor Mills disappeared from their homes the night of Sept.
 14.

Their bodies were found by Pearl Bahmer and Raymond Schneider at deserted Phillips
 farm Sept. 16.

Weeks of speculation—then Schneider accused Clifford Hayes.

Hayes arrested for murder—
 and quickly released when Schneider changes story.

Pearl Bahmer held as witness
 —and her father, Nicholas Bah-mer, arrested on a serious charge
 she preferred.

Charlotte Mills' appeals to Governor Edwards bring action
 by Supreme Court to appoint a special prosecutor to correlate investigation by two counties, on border of which bodies were found.

Florence North, woman lawyer-detective, makes public
 "Wonder Heart" letters from John vector to murdered choir
 singer.

By EDWARD THIERRY

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 19.

—Bungling of men has delayed solution of the Hall-Mills murder mystery. It is woman's day.

Miss Florence North, lawyer-detective, speaking.

Important steps in clearing up the church crime, in which Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills, choir singer, met death, began with Miss North's disclosure of the "Wonder Heart" letter.

These came with the alliance of two women—or, more correctly, a woman and a girl: Miss North, 25,
 and only a little while out of law school, and 19-year-old Charlotte Mills, daughter of the murdered woman, whose letters of appeal to Governor Edwards first exposed the bungling in the month-old mystery.

"I came into the case to help a girl
 in trouble," said Miss North, who volunteered her services without pay.

"Charlotte is the chief victim of this double crime. She is the tragic victim on whom the heaviest burden falls."

To See Justice Done
 Not even Mrs. Hall, widow of the slain pastor, nor James Mills, Charlotte's father, have aroused the sympathy given Charlotte.

"She has been a Nemesis, relentless and plucky, determined to subor-nate her grief in order that justice
 be done," said Miss North. "She needed
 a woman's counsel, a lawyer's skill and a detective's brain. I have tried to give her all of these."

"I am first a woman, with a tender sympathy for her. And I am lawyer with the instinct of a detective. Not enough lawyers, especially in lines of criminology, understand that they should be detectives, too."

Miss North, who is a New York girl,
 looks very little older than Charlotte.
 She was admitted to the bar five years ago, when she was 20.

"I mislaid my age—just one year," she said with a smile. "otherwise they would have kept me out.
 My heart has been in murder cases."

"I love the work and the excitement. By first experience, while still a law student, was with Grace Hum-

POLAND TO ESTABLISH A NATIONAL CURRENCY

WARSAW, Poland, Oct. 18.—A complete reform in the existing finance of Poland has been announced by Finance Minister Jastrzebski.

The program includes a monetary readjustment to be effected in from three to five years. Also he would increase and simplify taxation. The time has arrived, Mr. Jastrzebski declares, for the establishment of a Polish national currency. The unit is to be the zloty. The treasury has at its disposal 16,000,000 gold francs
 for the purpose, and also 150,000,000
 gold francs for industrial aid.

The minister's tax program involves a general increase in taxes, particularly land taxes, which he proposes to increase 20 times.

Despite the many difficulties which the nation has faced, industry has been successfully revived and is now buoyant. Although the printing of money resulted in depreciation, it nevertheless made possible the award of rights to manufacturers and agriculturalists, and it permitted state aid in the matter of tariffs and rates
 for the benefit of the poorer classes.

It now remains necessary only to establish gradually a gold and silver currency, and this the state now is in position to do.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Striking miners from the Rockwell-White Coal Company's mines in Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania, today picketed the com-

 bearing a placard which read:

"Miners of subway coal protest

 extra on Interboro fuel trying to smash the Pennsylvania miners on

CLUBMAN WANTS PATERNITY OF CHILD SETTLED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 18.—Henry Herman Laumier, clubman and son of one of the wealthiest women in St.
 Louis today filed a petition in circuit court to determine the paternity of the child of his former wife. He expressed the belief that he is not the father of the child, a boy, and says he is convinced to support it.

Mr. Laumier, who is 17 years old, declared he separated from his wife
 the day after he was married in August, 1918, and that the child was born in July, 1920. Mr. Laumier cited the testimony in his wife's divorce case in which she alleged she testified that the separation occurred the day after their marriage was completed, and that no children were born of the union.

Mr. Laumier is a real estate dealer and was secretary of the St. Louis Federal League Baseball Club during the league's brief career.

Mrs. Laumier, who was 22 years old when she married Laumier, obtained a decree of divorce in June 1919, with restoration of her maiden name, Miss Bird Shoemaker.

The motion recites that on September 30, last, when returning from a trip to Europe, Mr. Laumier was confronted in New York by his former wife, a Russian woman and a strange child, and that that the other woman served him with a notice to appear in court in New York and arrange to answer a charge that he had failed to support the child. Henry

Laumier, Jr., born to his wife December 28, 1919.

Laumier in his petition states that he gave his former wife several sums of $10,000 each, for which he expected to be released from future alimony claims and declares that the infant
 "either is or is not his child" and that he believes it is not.

TARRED AUTO TRACKS INCREASE RACER'S SPEED

MILAN, Oct. 18.—The Italian system of tarring the surface of automobile racing tracks, invented in 1901 by a civil engineer, Guido Rimaldi, has been described by Senator
 Silvio Crespi, President of the Italian Automobile Club, as the best in existence from the point of view of the speed obtained.

During the Grand Prix of the Automobile Club of Italy, run recently at Monza, a driver reached an average speed of 80 miles an hour in bad weather, while at Strasbourg similar cars did not surpass 40 miles an hour under perfect conditions.

The Monza track had been treated in the Rimaldi manner, while the other had not. Senator Rimaldi built his roads of cement and then applies a thick layer of tar.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
 Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
 are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr.
 Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct
 it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel.
 Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

STOCKARD WILL TAKE PATRIOTS IN HAND FOR 1923

GREENSBORO, Oct. 18.—Greensboro will have a team in the Piedmont League. Word to that effect was sent by G. Bramham, of Durham, president of the baseball league, last night following a meeting of stockholders and baseball enthusiasts at the chamber of commerce rooms. The local baseball club, long headed by John T. Rees, will be guided during the next season by C. Wistar Stockard, who was last night elected president of the club. Following the resignation of Mr. Rees, the club also submitted his resignation, which was accepted. However, he will continue to act as secretary until his successor is elected. The new club will have a say as to whom the officers and directors of the club will be for the coming season.

Shortly after the close of the baseball season this year, the club started passing literature to the effect that this club would not be represented in the Piedmont League next season. But Greensboro, long one of the best baseball clubs in the state and a pennant winner in 1920 and 1921, could not see the dividing of the baseball flag in this city.

Although the club expressed an unsuccessful year financially during the past season, there were sufficient baseball fans in this city who stood at the stern and made it possible for the continuance of the Piedmont League. When the death knell to the great national pastime was about to be sounded in the city, the merchants' association and the chamber of commerce came to the rescue and played the part of life savers. Committees from these two organizations devised plans, assuring Greensboro of the next season's baseball.

CENTRE LEAVES FOR HARVARD

DANVILLE, Ky., Oct. 18.—(Carrying on their sturdy shoulders the hopes of the South, the Praying Colonels of Centre College entrained here early today on the journey that leads to Harvard Stadium where next Saturday the third annual Harvard-Centre clash will be staged. Twenty-five players, Coaches Moran and Bond, Dr. C. E. Allen, faculty representative, and Student Manager Berryman made up the party.

Coach Moran's scheduled for the arrival of the party at Boston Thursday noon; practice by the squad Thursday afternoon at the stadium of Braves Field and the final workout in the stadium Friday morning.

Buckingham palace occupies the site of the mulberry gardens laid out by James VI. his unsuccessful attempt to start a silk industry in England.

ALTA VISTA IS BADLY BEATEN

Continuing its winning streak, and at the same time maintaining its record of not having its goal crossed, Danville High defeated Alta Vista High yesterday afternoon by the score of 54 to 0. During three of the four quarters, second string men played. The victory was easy for the youngsters run in by Coach Willis.

Danville has taken on another game for the present week, playing a husky bunch from South Boston next Saturday. Therefore, every effort was made to save the first team men in yesterday's game. As it turned out there was really no need for the substitutes on the field, so little opposition Saturday when the National Guard team from South Boston will furnish opposition it is probable that Danville will need its full strength.

This game is expected to be one of the closest of the season. The line up yesterday:

Danville	Alta Vista
Dickerson	Quarter
Burgess	L. B.
Ruffin	R. H.
Reeves	C.
Clarke	R. G.
Zabawa	L. G.
Farley	R. T.
Tucker	L. T.
Taylor	R. E.
Franklin	L. E.

SIKI-BECKETT FIGHT DEC. 7TH

PARIS, Oct. 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—The fight between Siki and Beckett, English heavyweights, will take place in London December 7. It was officially announced tonight by the International Boxing Union, under whose auspices the battle will be held.

The articles call for a 20 round encounter and will be for the official heavy-weight title of Europe, as neither the light-heavy weight limit. The Senegalese, who recently defeated Georges Carpentier, will fight around 185 pounds, which is ten pounds heavier than the weight he fought at in the Carpentier struggle. The fight will be staged at the Olympia.

The original agreement, which was made last Sunday, called for the fight to take place November 23, but Major Arnold J. Wilson, Beckett's manager, asked that it be postponed to a later date. Both fighters have made the deposits required by the rules of the International Boxing Union. The Associated Press understands from a reliable authority that Siki will receive 7,000 pounds sterling, win, lose or draw.

HOW TO LIVE LONG

(By Dr. Emerson Haven Emerson) Professor of Public Health Administration, Columbia University.

If you would live long, follow these rules at all times: First—Remember that eventually, one of the vital organs must wear out and death ensue. The problem of longevity resolves itself into a fight to keep the vital organs from wearing out.

Second—Society must recognize its responsibility to itself. Each community must employ a full-time, non-political, professional officer of public health, vested with much authority. His appointment and continuity should be based entirely on merit.

Third—In conjunction with the health officer, each community should maintain an adequate health department. Its functions are: check hygiene and infant care, control of social diseases, proper maternity care, public health education and care of communicable diseases.

Fourth—You must submit to a periodic health examination by your own physician.

Fifth—You must learn to know yourself. If you hope to live long, you must study your diet, eat the things that agree with your digestive system.

Follow your doctor's advice on nutrition, rest, exercise, cleanliness and occupation.

TRAFFIC CLUBS START THEIR PLANS WORKING

CLEVELAND, Oct. 18.—A plan was set in motion for a discussion program which may result in demands on Congress by transportation and traffic men for the abolishment of the Railroad Labor Board, the enactment of anti-strike legislation and a definite plan of railway consolidation.

Directors announced they will shortly call on thirty constituent traffic clubs to discuss these and other questions and instruct their delegates as to how to vote upon them in the first convention of the association which will be December 6 and 7, either in New York or St. Louis.

The subjects proposed for discussion by the clubs are: a plan for consolidation of water, railway and highway transportation, eighteen amendment legislation and law enforcement as related to ocean commerce, transportation legislation, the approaching session of Congress, including abolishment of the Railroad Labor Board anti-strike legislation and amendment or repeal of the existing transportation act relating to earnings of the railroads based on valuation; the placing of inter-coastal steamship traffic under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission; the consolidation of the railroads referred to in the section of the transportation act, now in force possible amendments and the attitude of the Interstate Commerce Commission in administering it, and a plan of expedite business of the national organization through prompt handling of its affairs by member clubs.

The association formed last May and consisting of seventy-five clubs in the United States, with 19,000 members, has for its purpose the bringing together of traffic men of the nation in such a way that they can express the opinions of both railroad representatives and shippers upon transportation questions.

OPERATORS OF WIRELESS ARE GIVEN WARNING

Those people who have just invested in wireless outfits will have to take heed of one thing. A scientist has just stated that wireless operators as a class are very attractive to the fair sex.

He explains it this way. Love, he says, is a matter of waves like sea-sickness. All human beings are composed of electrons like everything else in this world and these electrons are always oscillating in a certain rhythm.

When a young man meets a girl, and his heart misses two beats in the same bar, and he feels that he wants to give up smoking and eating and live in the next stage of love. And when he can think of nothing better to do than to follow the girl home and sleep on her doorstep, he fancies that he's in the second stage of love.

Now love, according to this scientist, means that the young man has met a girl whose electrons are oscillating backwards and forwards in tune with his own. Both sets of atoms are sending out waves, in a sort of wireless telegraphy, and as soon as they get into touch they begin to hop about madly all over the place in their excitement, and stop moving steadily and behaving themselves.

From close association with the waves that emanate from the wireless machines, the people who listen to them are charged with electricity, just as a knife becomes magnetic when it is taken near a dynamo. The ether all around also becomes charged with these rays.

Colonel Forbes Leaves Without Saying Good-Bye

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 18.—Having paraded with colors flying in their annual review, voted to continue the fight for adjusted compensation, received an embossed message from the British Legion signed by the Prince of Wales, an ivory gavel from Alaska Legionnaires, the election of officers was almost solely occupying the attention of delegates to the fourth annual convention of the American Legion in session here.

The election, due to be held Friday, promises to be one of the hardest fought in the history of the Legion's four years of existence. With nine states running favorite sons, and each one claiming sufficient votes to find some consideration of their candidates, delegates who have attended all of the national conventions admit they are at sea as to the final results.

It was definitely announced by the Texas delegation today that the name of Alvin M. Conley, of their state, and now chairman of the American Legion, would be presented to the convention with the state endorsement.

Something of a surprise was thrown into convention circles late today when it became known that Colonel C. R. Forbes, director of the United States Veterans Bureau, who came here on the invitation of Hansford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, and who was scheduled to address the convention tomorrow upon the work of his organization, had suddenly left New Orleans and returned to Washington.

Colonel Forbes took with him his entire staff. He made no public statement as to the reasons for his departure, nor did he intimate whether the action was taken solely on his own responsibility.

It had been openly charged by William F. Deegan of New York, commander of the Legion of his state, and announced candidate for national commander, that Colonel Forbes had actually come to the convention by invitation of President Harding in an effort to procure the selection of a man for national commander, who would maintain a lukewarm attitude toward proposed national legislation for a soldier bonus.

Deegan, supreme commissioner of baseball, was introduced by Commander MacNider as the man who, in his opinion, most nearly typified the Roosevelt tradition. A great outburst of applause greeted the veteran jurist. Having carefully moved from his vicinity all the fixtures within reach of his hand, he followed a tour of mishap to one of the amplifiers, Mr. Landis, tore into the convention with one of his characteristic speeches, which warmed the hearts of the legionnaires and brought them to their feet several times.

The politician who did nothing for his country in time of war and is now coming up for re-election should be "kicked," he advised the legionnaires. "Kicked," he advised the legionnaires.

Adoption of the report of the executive committee, recommending a continuance of the fight for adjusted compensation, was accomplished by one of the big demonstrations of the convention.

Upon the presentation of the executive report the following resolution was adopted by the convention: "Resolution that the American Legion, at its fourth annual convention assembled, reaffirms its belief in the American Legion plan for adjusted compensation, with full confidence in the support of the American people, does not instruct the new national commander, the national legislative committee and Congress, was directed by a soldier bonus. Kenneth M. Landis, supreme commissioner of baseball, was introduced by Commander MacNider as the man who, in his opinion, most nearly typified the Roosevelt tradition. ## Large Crowd At Political Rally At South Boston

SOUTH BOSTON, Va., Oct. 18.—Interest in the campaign for United States senator and for representative in Congress was greatly stimulated and real enthusiasm aroused here today by the brilliant speeches on the issues of the campaign made to a large and appreciative audience here today by His Excellency, Hon. E. Lee Trinkle, governor of Virginia, and Hon. J. M. Hooker, of Patrick county, candidate for re-election as representative in Congress from the fifth Congressional district. Frequent evidences of approval and appreciation of the telling points for Democracy made by these two well known speakers interspersed their addresses. Governor Trinkle made a brilliant and polished oratorical appeal in the course of which he eloquently appealed for the endorsement of Democratic policies and Democratic candidates.

Representative Hooker, familiar with the record of the present Republican Congress, made a clear, strong and forceful address in which he vigorously attacked and roundly condemned the Republican administration and Congress on their failure to initiate or to carry to consummation any beneficial legislation. He cited facts and figures on which he based his spirited condemnation of the Republican Congress to grant relief to the mass of the people from tax burdens, but charged that instead the Congress dominated by the Republicans decisively had heavily increased the expenses of government and had failed to curtail this heavy and burdensome cost, though multiplying the figures and deferring payment of obligations due this year until next year in an effort to cover up a deficit. On the other hand, what legislation had been enacted was plainly and probably in the interest and for the benefit of favored interests and large wealth, such as the reduction of the income and excess profits taxes as they applied to great wealth.

The Fordney-McCumber tariff bill, the chief achievement of the administration, was denounced as the worst and most indefensible tariff bill ever adopted by any Congress and one which would bear heavily on the average man and the poor and assuring a great majority for Senator Swanson and Congressman Hooker and an adverse majority to the constitutional convention.

Altogether the day was a great one for the Democrats of Halifax and will have a powerful effect in getting out the vote and assuring a great majority for Senator Swanson and Congressman Hooker and an adverse majority to the constitutional convention.

expense of the average individual and family. Mr. Hooker went into some detail in pointing out from the schedules in the new tariff bill how it increased the cost of living for the masses and at the same time benefited American monopolies and combinations of the manufacturers and market manipulators. Fortified by the fact and in a position to keep a finger on the pulse of legislation, yet powerless because his party was in the minority to do more than protest in most instances, he did show how in a few instances, notably in defeating the Republican effort to make a greater reduction in the tariff on woolen fortunes and profiteering on the part of the Democratic minority had been able to curb even worse and more indubitably discriminating legislation in the interest of the great Napoleons of finance and the selfish interests to which the Republican party was under financial obligation. Governor Trinkle, a clear, strong and forceful address in which he vigorously attacked and roundly condemned the Republican administration and Congress on their failure to initiate or to carry to consummation any beneficial legislation. ## STATUE TO SHOW RAPID GROWTH OF CHAUTAUQUA

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 18—(By The Associated Press.)—Commemorating the fifteenth anniversary of the founding of the Chautauqua Institute in New York, Lorado Taft, Chicago sculptor, has been authorized by the International Lyceum and Chautauqua Association to prepare a suitable statue depicting the origin, growth and purpose of the organization.

Supplementing this recognition of the movement founded in 1873 by Bishop John H. Vincent of the Methodist Church, and Lewis Miller, an Ohio manufacturer, chautauqua lecturers next season will unite in devoting attention to observance of the semi-centennial.

Chautauqua Institute, of which Arthur H. Bestor is president, has initiated three movements in the educational world. It is peopled out—the summer assembly, the summer school, and the homereading circle. From the summer assembly has come more than 10,000 circuit chautauquas.

At the end of the first fifteen years, the reading circle enrollment was 10,000 students, among them being the late Elbert Hubbard and Thomas A.

Side Trails Are Latest for Evening Gowns

A long train that falls from one hip and trails gracefully from the side is considered very new for evening gowns.

On the other side of the track—the side drape without which no dress can be fashionable this winter.

And of course the drapes are fastened with a cabochon ornament. All as it should be.

Velvet is the favored material—the exquisitely supple French chiffon velvet which is indescribable and unforgettable.

Amber is one of the most fashionable shades and golden brown runs second.

Next to velvet in popularity are the metal fabrics with overdrapes of beaded nets, chiffons or laces.

SWISS FARMERS TO COME TO AMERICA

Cheese and Butter to Be Made on Farms to Be Taken Up in Colorado

DENVER, Oct. 18—From the peaceful valleys and slopes of the Colorado Rockies will be the transition of several hundred Swiss farmers, if plans under way here mature.

Negotiations for securing thousands of acres of farm land in Moffat and Routt counties, Colorado, are being conducted by representatives of young Swiss farmers who desire to emigrate to the United States and take up the manufacture of cheese and butter in the Western mountain country.

The plan is expected to result in the colonization of much land not only in Colorado, but also in the valleys and mountain sides of Utah and Wyoming.

With the opening of the Moffat tunnel, which will afford transportation facilities to thousands of square miles of rich farm land on Colorado's Western slope, it is expected the colonization movement of the Swiss farmers will result in rapid and intensive cultivation of great acres of farm land.

Woman Who Slew Man, Twice More Tries to

Mrs. Saludes Almost Collapses on Learning of Martelli's Death When Arraigned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Oscar Martelli, shot five times Monday by the woman who says he had cheated her and tried to toss her aside, died early yesterday in Beekman Street Hospital. The woman, Mrs. Paulette Saludes, was locked in Tombs prison after being arraigned before Magistrate Cobb in the homicide court. She was held without bail for hearing next Tuesday. On her way to court, after Capt. Carey of the Homicide Squad had questioned her at headquarters, Mrs. Saludes twice tried to commit suicide. At Grand street she attempted to pull away from Capt. Punston and Detective Murphy of Old Slip Station and throw herself under a westbound trolley car. At Canal street she tried to jump before a truck. Before surrendering to the police Monday afternoon she made two attempts to end her life by jumping from a window in the office of her attorney, James A. Turley, on the thirteenth floor of the Woolworth Building. Until her arraignment Mrs. Saludes did not know Martelli had died. She stiffened at the announcement and almost collapsed weeping hysterically as she was led from the court. "He is dead now and I have nothing to live for. He is never coming back. I'm sorry I did not kill him."

Long before the shooting of Martelli, Mrs. Saludes had come to believe that life was not worth living. It was for a different reason than that which had led her to kill. Mrs. Saludes, then president of the Saludes Lumber Company, No. 159 Broadway, had gone to France on business. Martelli, her friend and business associate, had Mrs. Saludes' husband, who had died, and had robbed his stockholders and wrecked his firm.

Mrs. Saludes, married in France five years previously and happy until Saludes left, accepted Martelli's word. She had not then fallen in love with him, and one night she turned on the gas in her house, No. 1178 East 17th street, Brooklyn. Martelli, calling without an appointment, saved her life.

The lumber company, solvent when Saludes left, had failed. A few weeks later it had been declared bankrupt, with liabilities of $40,000 and assets of $25,000. Martelli, owning $1,300,000, which had been largely paid for out of the savings of his wife, then and now stenographer, was one of the three petitioning creditors.

In a bankruptcy hearing two letters Saludes had written to his wife from France were read. They contained a Latin effusion of affection and spoke with anticipatory delight of a quick return to his home. But his wife had turned against him and she wrote that she never wished to see him again. Saludes has never come back.

Martelli had tried his hand at real estate and then insurance. Although never successful enough to provide for his wife and their six-year-old daughter, he installed Mrs. Saludes in an apartment at No. 228 West 95th street. For a year he was known there as her husband. He and his wife did not become permanently estranged until two months ago. Martelli placed to mortgage on Mrs. Saludes' house in Brooklyn, raising about $5,000. He sold her automobile for $300. He had promised to marry her after divorcing his wife. She expected to divorce Saludes for desertion. But her relations with Martelli changed after he had her property. Gradually the realization came that he had no intention of marrying her.

Although the insurance broker apparently held her affections until the last, Mrs. Saludes' recollections, as revealed in broken conversation with her lawyer, as chiefly against herself for having cast aside her husband on a whim. When and where a bundle of letters weighing not 100 pounds, she spoke repeatedly of this yesterday.

The attitude of Mrs. Martelli, who lives at No. 74 La Salle street with her daughter and mother, is passive and uncomplaining. She did not know Martelli was living with Mrs. Saludes, but she was not surprised to hear of his death. She had come to know him as a man no woman could be sure of, but because of her daughter she carried on until the end.
